

UNIVERSITY OF NAIROBI

6TH ANNUAL FORENSIC VICTIMOLOGY
AND VICTIM SUPPORT CONFERENCE KENYA 2023

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

25th-26th OCTOBER 2023

‘Innovative and Sustainable Practices for Victim Support Services in the Society’

Website: <https://researchweek.uonbi.ac.ke/index.php/6th-annual-forensic-victimology-and-victim-support-conferencekenya2023/>

Conference Objectives

- To provide a forum for stakeholders both international and local, to deliberate and share insights and ideas on innovative practices for victim support services in the society.
- To create a forum for experience and knowledge exchange as well as networking for academicians, policy makers and victim advocacy practitioners to understand the role of victim support in changing times.
- To understand victimology as a multi-disciplinary approach where subjects like law, sociology, criminology, psychology, gender and education converge to calibrate the victimology process and reduce victimization
- To create a networking platform for partnership formation and collaboration, to tackle issues dealing with victimology and crime and victimization.
- To show case good practices of supporting victims and survivors on their journey to self-recovery and residence.
- To position forensic victimology and victim support research and practice in addressing societal challenges.

Conference Subthemes:

1. Rights of vulnerable victims and the Criminal Justice System
2. Theory and practice in Victimization
3. Victimization situations: Environmental injustices, Historical, indigenous Knowledge/ communities and political Violence.
4. Victims of Human Trafficking, Immigrants, Refugees/internal Displaced persons
5. Social injustices: Victims of violence against women, Violence within family; Intimate Partner Violence, Child abuse and elderly Abuse, Gender issues and victimization
6. Vulnerability and Victimization, Alternative Justice Systems,
7. Role of stakeholders in Victimization and Victimological process: Government, NGOS, CBOs, Health workers, Faith based organizations, Research groups and think tanks, opinion leaders
8. Emerging issues in Victimology: online victimization, Fraud, money laundering, mediation ,impersonation, social media, hate crimes, sexual orientation ,LGTBQ, Victimology and innovation ,Artificial Intelligence(AI)
9. Research and Practice in victimology :Digital technology; online crimes; cybercrime, fraud, money laundering, impersonation, social media

10. Psychological and Mental Health and Victimization, Trauma and stigmatization in psychological, Understanding Psychological mental health , the harmer and the harmed

About the University of Nairobi, Kenya

The University of Nairobi is the oldest University in Kenya with its origins in the Royal Technical College of East Africa, which was established in 1956 to offer education and training in technology and business. Subsequently, the University of Nairobi was established out of the University College, in 1970. From the first 215 students who registered to study in the Royal Technical College of East Africa when it opened its doors to students for the first time on 23rd April 1956, there are today over 50,000 students enrolled cutting across different nationalities. The University continues to be a centre for intellectual life, a locus of research activity extending the boundaries of knowledge, a resource for professional development, a key player in the growing global network of scholarship and a hub for training future leaders and professionals globally. The University is considered a source of excellence and a leader in new initiatives and innovations in response to national and global issues. It is endowed with some of the best and highly rated professors, scholars and researchers in Africa who service the wider community in bringing change to the society and creating a difference. Other notable strengths include a vast base of talented holistic students who leverage on their diversity to create a pool of talents and skills that rejuvenate the university community.

Website: www.uonbi.ac.ke

Cohost:

Ahmadu Bello University Zaria, Kaduna State, Nigeria

Ahmadu Bello University Zaria is a federal government research university located in Zaria, Kaduna State, and Nigeria. It was opened in 1962 as the University of Northern Nigeria. It was founded by and is now named for Ahmadu Bello, first premier of Northern Nigeria. The university operates a main Campus at Samaru; a satellite from nearby Kongo, and a pre-degree school in Funtua, approximately 85 kilometres (53 mi) away. The main campus houses administrative offices and faculties of physical sciences, life sciences, social sciences, arts and languages, education, environmental design, engineering, medical sciences, agricultural sciences, and research centres. Kongo hosts faculties of law and administration, the latter addresses accounting, business administration, local government and development studies as well as public administration.

Ahmadu Bello University shall be a world-class university comparable to any other, engaged in imparting contemporary knowledge, using high quality facilities and multi-disciplinary approaches, to men and women of all races, as well as generating new ideas and intellectual practices relevant to the needs of its immediate community, Nigeria and the world at large.

Website; <https://abu.edu.ng/>

Kibabii University, Bungoma County, Kenya

Kibabii University is a public university in Kenya located in Bungoma County along Bungoma-Chwele highway. Previously a constituent college of Masinde Muliro University of Science and Technology, the university was granted its Charter by President Kenyatta in November 2015. The Vice Chancellor is Prof. Isaac Ipara Odeo, a Professor of Kiswahili of the same institution with a focus on Kiswahili language and literature education.

Website: <https://kibu.ac.ke/>

Welcoming Remarks from the Vice-Chancellor Prof. Stephen Kiama, BVM, MSc. (Nairobi), PhD (Bern). Vice-Chancellor, University of

Welcome to Kenya and welcome to University of Nairobi.

The University of Nairobi continues to be a centre of excellence for innovation and conducting quality research in various areas of focus with an aim of addressing societal issues comprehensively. It is my singular honour to welcome you all to the 6th Annual Forensic Victimology and Victim Support conference taking place on a blended mode from 25th -26th October, 2023.

This conference, with the theme, ‘Innovative and Sustainable Practices for Victim Support Services in the Society ‘is being held against the backdrop of a worrying trend of increased violence, disruptions and victim circumstances in various spaces globally. Our institutions are intertwined in a global web of victimization and disruptions that affect mankind. The conference is timely as we continue to learn and interrogate the concept of victim circumstances and Support Services in reducing suffering and assisting in changing the role of victim support services. A forum like this will help stakeholders in academia, private sector and the community to provide leadership in removing existing walls that exist.

I note with appreciation the efforts made by different stakeholders to make this conference a success,

To the researches, students and other stakeholders who have taken time to put up over 35 papers for this conference, we say thank you.

I wish to recognize and thank my Co-hosts: the Vice- Chancellor of Ahmadu Bello University, Kaduna State, Nigeria and the Vice- Chancellor, Kibabii University, Kenya. I value your partnership and collaborations as we provide research leadership in higher education sector in Africa and beyond.

I also do appreciate our keynote speakers led by;

- Prof. Janice Joseph, *President World Society of Victimology(USA)
- Prof. Kabiru Bala-*Vice- Chancellor Ahmadu Bello University, Nigeria
- Prof. Sarah Simons-*Vice- President World Society of Victimology
- Nina Hanssen - *Norwegian public speaker and Award winning journalist
- Dr. Steve Ouma (Advocate) - *Director for Research and Training at Kenya Judiciary Academy.

To our other speakers and visitors, we acknowledge your willingness to be part of our Research Week activities.

I therefore wish to declare the 6th Annual Forensic Victimology and Victim Support conference officially opened.

Message from University of Nairobi Research Week Committee Chairperson

Prof. M. Jesang Hutchinson
Associate Vice- Chancellor
Research, Innovation, and Enterprise

We are at it again!

On behalf of the Research, Innovation and Enterprise Division of the University of Nairobi and the UoN Research Week Committee 2023, I warmly welcome every one of you, those present and those following us online, to this conference themed ‘Innovative Practices for Victim Services in the Society’ taking place between 25th & 26th October, 2023. This is the 6th year for the University of Nairobi to host the Annual Forensic Victimology and Victim Support Conference.

This is a very topical issue and I value the efforts by the

Prof. M. Jesang Hutchinson

Associate Vice- Chancellor

Research, Innovation, and Enterprise Conference Convener, planning committee and stakeholders who have worked tirelessly to make this convening possible. May I make a special recognition of the researchers, seasoned and students being mentored, who will be presenting their research work, for preparing abstracts and full papers, which they will share during this platform that has been prepared for professional and academic growth and development.

I also take this opportunity to appreciate our keynote speakers. Other speakers and presenters also are much appreciated and welcome to the conference and hope to see you as key partners even in the future

For those who have joined as physically from other regions, we appreciate the efforts you have put in place to be with us and share your experiences in your fields with us.

We cannot under-rate the role this conference is going to lay in understanding the notion of victimization and victim support services in various spaces. This is a critical area in our institutions, communities and even within the villages and family set-ups.

As an institution, we are committed to embodying the aspirations of the Kenyan people and global community and the need to understand the dynamic nature of victimology and crafting sustainable solutions is central.

Finally, may I convey our sincere appreciation of the conference sponsors, partnership and networks for their support?

To all the conference participants, thank you very much and hope the conference will be fruitful.

This week the University of Nairobi is once again hosting a series of conferences during the University Research Week that runs from 23RD - 27TH October, 2023. During the Week, we have sixteen (16) conferences cutting across seven

Faculties. The theme of this year's Research Week conferences is 'Harnessing Research for resilience and Sustainability of Communities'

This theme is very appropriate in our times as the world is recovering from Covid19 effects, and is a clarion call to all researchers and practitioners to focus on the important role of research and technology towards sustainable development in Society. The conferences have attracted high-quality papers on different topics related to the specific themes of the respective conferences, and I call upon the attendees to actively participate and see what they can learn from the research findings. The Research Week has attracted very eminent Guest Speakers both local and international, and it will be interesting to listen to their presentations.

I wish to thank our guest speakers, key note speakers, paper presenters, staff, students and all delegates, who have taken time off their busy schedules to attend our conferences, either physically or virtually. We truly value your time and hope that this is not the last time you are joining us in the conferences. We will continue to collaborate with you and invite you in our future conferences and any other areas where we think your input is needed.

Dean, Faculty of Education, University of Nairobi Welcome Remarks

Prof. Jeremiah M. Kalai PhD
Faculty of Education,
University of Nairobi

It is with happiness and joy that I take this opportunity to welcome you all to the Faculty of Education, University of Nairobi, Kenya. The 6th Annual Forensic Victimology and Victim Support conference 2023 that is taking place from 25th -26th October 2023 is quite crucial to us as an institution and as a Faculty.

Due to the COVID 19 pandemic, we are not able to host you physically in our Faculty, at Kikuyu Campus. But we hope you will enjoy the blended conference.

We are once again proud to co-host the event with

Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria, Kaduna

State, Nigeria (our partners in 2019, 2020 and 2021) and Kibabii University in Bungoma County, Kenya. our partners in 2020 and 2021)

The conference Theme: 'Innovative Practices for Victim Services in the Society' relates to what we need to do and practice to make a difference in our societies. I also take this opportunity to thank our keynote speakers led by Prof. Janice Joseph, Distinguished Professor of the Criminal Justice Program at Stockton University, New Jersey, U.S.A. and who is also the current President of the World Society of Victimology,

Prof. Kabiru Bala, Vice- Chancellor, Ahmadu Bello University, Kaduna State and other distinguished speakers and presenters.

Much appreciation also goes to our cohost institutions Ahmadu Bello University, Kaduna State and Kibabii University, Bungoma County, Kenya and other institutions and organizations who have worked with us closely. To all other speakers, paper presenters, visitors present, students and staff let us take this opportunity share experiences and acquire more skills for the future. The debates, deliberations and the findings from the 35 research papers being presented during this conference will be of value to us and our communities. My congratulation to the organizing teams from the three universities for a job well done. We expect the conference to be a great success.

I will give you my support always

I wish you a fruitful participation.

Thank you and welcome

DR. ANNE WAIRIMU NDIRITU

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to Kenya And to the University of Nairobi, Faculty of education. In our endeavor to prioritize research in the University, the 6TH Annual University of Nairobi Research week will be hosting 16 conferences and over 600 research papers with over 70 keynote speaker's engaging with the audience during the 5 days event. Three conference will be from faculty of education. The 6TH Annual Forensic Victimology and Victim Support Service , taking place from 25th -26TH October 2023 is timely for our institution and the society at large as we understand the victim circumstances in our society. My sincere congratulations to the keynote speakers, presenters, visitors and students present. It is a great opportunity to take advantage of and learn from experts in the field of Forensic Victimology and Victim support services. My gratitude goes to the organizing team of this conference. Thank you and see you again in 2024.

Message from Victimology and Victim Support Conference Chair

Anne Asee, PhD

Chair, Dept. of Educational and Distance Studies, University of Nairobi

I welcome you to the 56h Annual Forensic Victimology and Victim Support Conference 2023 to be held from 25th-26th October 2023.

The conference is blended (virtual and face to face). As we recover from COVID 19, blended mode still suits our situation.

It is a matter of great pride that this International Conference is being held in Nairobi, Kenya. This conference deliberates on an issue of forensic Victimology and Victim support services in contemporary society. The conference draws its strength from support from the University of Nairobi, Worlds Society of Victim, Ahmadu Bello University, Kaduna State Nigeria, Kibabii University and other stakeholders

This Conference intends to bring together scholars and researchers across disciplines from over 20 countries to pool together experiences and expertise to reflect on varied issues involved in the process understanding and transforming the discipline of Victimology and victim support services from research to practice.

This year's theme: 'Innovative and Sustainable Practices for Victim Support Services in the Society' relates to what is happening in our societies across board from Africa, to Middle East, Oceania, Europe and other continents. This unprecedented times gives victimologist, victim support practitioners, researchers and other related partners an opportunity to showcase their innovative and sustainable practices in victim support work.

As we gather here today(Physically and Virtually) for these two days, the experiences, learning and case studies we will go through will be worth remembering for a period of time and some worth practising and being part of the process in the field of victim assistance.

As we get ourselves glued to our laptops, and other screens for 2days to discuss, listen and share experiences on issues of victimology and Victim support services, it is because of our interest in the discipline.

If I may give a trajectory path on our involvement and endeavor to strengthen and understand better the concept of Victimology in Sub Saharan Africa, I do mention and recognize the important roles played by the following in entrenching and creating an understanding in victimology in Sub Saharan Africa:

- Prof. Dr. Robert Peacock, Former President of the World Society of Victimology and Chair of the Department of the Criminology at the University of the Free State, South Africa
- Prof. Sarah Agneta Simons Vice-President, World Society of Victimology who has worked hard in supporting Victimology initiatives in Sub-Saharan Africa at all levels and co-chairing the Victimology conferences (2018-Conenet University, Nigeria and University of Nairobi, 2019-2021 University of Nairobi Research Week)
- Prof. Marc Groenhuijsen, University of Tilburg, The Netherlands and former President World Society of Victimology, in his role in training 80 Victimology's participants in 2018 at Covenant University, Ogun State, Nigeria and still supporting the teams.
- Sir. Michael O'Connell (Australia)- Secretary General of the World Society of Victimology in his role in training 80 participants in 2018 at Covenant University, Ogun State, Nigeria and also giving key note address during the first conference hosted at the University of Nairobi in 2018.
- Prof. Reyna Faride Peña-Castillo Universidad Autónoma de Yucatán, Mexico- Executive member, World Society of Victimology in her role in training 80 participants in 2018 at Covenant University, Ogun State, Nigeria and also giving keynote speech and training participants during the 2nd Conference hosted by University of Nairobi in 2019.
- Prof. (Dr.) Janice Joseph - Stockton University, USA Executive, Current President, World Society of Victimology. Giving keynote speech and explaining to participants the role, functions, mandate and how to be members of World Society of Victimology during the 2nd Conference hosted by University of Nairobi in 2019.
- Nina Hanssen, Researcher, author, award winning Journalist and Media Manager, Oslo, Norway her role in training and mentoring 80 participants in 2018 during the conference and ToT Workshop hosted by Covenant university and Ahmadu Bello University at Covenant University, Ogun State, Nigeria and mentoring student's leaders in Kenya in 2019, Key speaker Kenya 2021

Prof. Pamela Raburu –Director Quality Assurance ,Jaramogi Oginga Odinga University of Science and Technology and Gender and Disability Expert

• Memory Zonde Kachumbwa, Executive Director, African Women's Development and Communication Network (FEMNET)-in addressing issues of gender inequality and Sponsoring students to participate in the conference. Godfrey A. Wafula, Department of Chemistry, Faculty of Sciences, University of Nairobi Sponsoring students to participate in the conference.

Alongside others not mentioned by name and institutions who have worked with us we are grateful for your collaborative efforts.

In summary

- 2018 –1st Victimology conference attracted over 70 participants with, 7 countries represented, and 32 research papers presented.
- In 2019 Victimology conference attracted over 90 participants with 8 countries represented and 46 research papers presented.
- In 2020 Victimology conference (virtual) attracted over 100 participants with 10 countries represented, and 54 research papers will be presented.
- In 2021 Victimology conference (virtual) attracted over 100 participants and 40 Research papers were presented.
- In 2022 Victimology attracted 7 Key note speakers, 30 Research papers from 7 Countries who have participated in our conferences
- 2024 has attracted 35 abstracts, and over 10 Countries will be participating

We sincerely recognize the role of each individuals who are here with us today and for the next Two days. We appreciate the work each one of you has done to make this event a success.

We also recognize our sponsors for this Conference who have volunteered their services and supported the conference in one way or the other. We say thank you.

We hope this blended conference will bring joy and a sense of togetherness and happiness as we interact in various spaces and more so that it will be something worthwhile to reckon with in future.

We do all this with a sense of looking at the future, but with strong hope and conviction that the partnership between different institutions, organisations, researchers, stakeholders, students and participants remains and will continue to be a pillar of hope to our diversified societies.

Thank you

And wish You Well

KARIBUNI KENYA-Welcome to Kenya

Co-Host Vice-Chancellors Ahmadu Bello University Zaria, Kaduna State, Nigeria

Prof. Kabiru Bala is a Nigerian professor, academician, construction engineer and the Vice-Chancellor of Ahmadu Bello University Zaria, Kaduna State, Nigeria. Ahmadu Bello University (ABU) is a federal government research university located in Zaria, Kaduna State. ABU was founded on October 4, 1962, as the University of Northern Nigeria. Ahmadu Bello University (ABU) is a federal government research university located in Zaria, Kaduna State. ABU was founded on October 4, 1962, as the University of Northern Nigeria.

The University operates three main campuses: Samaru and Kongo in Zaria, and School of Basic Studies in Funtua. The Samaru campus houses the administrative offices, sciences, social-sciences, arts and languages, education, environmental design, engineering, medical sciences agricultural sciences and research facilities. The Kongo campus hosts the Faculties of Law and Administration. The Faculty of Administration consists of Accounting, Business Administration, Local Government and Development Studies and Public Administration Departments. Additionally, the university is responsible for a variety of other institutions and programs at other locations.

The University is named after the Sardauna of Sokoto, Alhaji Sir Ahmadu Bello, and the first Premier of Northern Nigeria.

The University is unique in its own way of being one of the premier universities in Nigeria. It runs a wide variety of undergraduate and graduate programs (and offers associate degrees and vocational and remedial programs). The university has a large medical program with its own A.B.U. Teaching Hospital, one of the largest teaching hospitals in Nigeria and Africa.

The University has a large pool of Individuals, institutions, organisations both locally and globally that they partner with to enhance its role in the community.

Co-host Coordinators

Ahmadu Bello University, Kaduna State, Nigeria- Director, Institute for Development and Research, ABU, Zaria

Prof. Binta Abdulkarim- Co-host, Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria, Kaduna State, Nigeria
Science Education, Geography Unit, Ahmadu Bello, University, Zaria
B.Sc. (Ed) Geography; M.Sc., Ph.D. (Science Education); Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria
Teaching and Research, Community Outreach (National and International)
Director, Institute for Development Research and Training, Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria

Member, African Centre of Excellence in Engineering Education (ABU) Zaria
Currently, the coordinator of Gender Policy Unit in Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria; the aim of which is to provide the Vice Chancellor with policy options central to contemporary gender issues; Chairperson of Kaduna State Environment Protection Authority, the Kaduna State Branch of the National Conservation Foundation and the Kaduna State College of Education; Gender P.I for Africa Centre of Excellence on new Pedagogies in Engineering Education ABU Zaria-World Bank.

Kibabii University, Bungoma County, Kenya.

Dr. Rispah Wepukhulu-Namasaka is currently a Senior Lecturer and Director, Institute of Gender and Development Studies (DIGDS) at Kibabii University. She formally served as chair of departments and the dean of the Faculty of Education and Social Sciences (FESS) which is currently split into school of Education (SOE) and Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences (FASS). She worked on the establishment of the School of Business and Economics (SOBE). She has vast experience in teaching and research spanning 30 years. As a senior lecturer, Dr. Wepukhulu has been able to assist students to the point where some of them have received PhDs and over fifteen (15) have received

Master degrees. She has made significant contributions to the corpus of knowledge by authoring and publishing books and papers in peer-reviewed publications. She is a member of Kenya National Academy of Sciences (KNAS) and a trained and certified mediator. She currently serves as the chairperson of Kenya Literature Bureau (KLB) and to various school board of management.

Conference Objectives

1. To provide a forum for stakeholders both international and local, to deliberate and share information and ideas on Forensic Victimology and victim support.
2. To create an experience exchange forum for academicians, policy makers and victim advocacy practitioners to understand the role of victim support in changing times.
3. To understand victimology as a multi-disciplinary approach where subjects like law, sociology, criminology, psychology, gender and education converge to improve the quality of life for those in society experiencing misfortune.
4. To create a networking platform for partnership formation, tackle issues dealing with victimology and crime victimization.
5. To show case good practice of supporting victims and survivors on their journey to recovery and resilience building.
6. To contextualize Kenya Victim Protection Act 2014 within global victimology discourse.
7. To create a network of scholars from various universities, institutions and other related organizations that will spearhead the process and utilization of forensic victimology and victim support within their structures.

Conference Tracks

1. Rights of vulnerable victims and the Criminal Justice System
2. Trauma and stigmatization in psychological theory and practice, vicarious trauma, Mental Health
3. Victimization situations: Environmental Injustices, Historical, indigenous communities and Political Violence
4. Victims of Human Trafficking, Immigrants/Refugees/internal displaced persons
5. Social injustices: Victims of violence; Violence against Women, Violence within Family, gender issues
6. Intimate Partner Violence, Child Abuse, and elderly abuse.

7. Vulnerability and victimization, Alternative Justices, , Indigenous/local knowledge and victim support

Website:

<https://researchweek.uonbi.ac.ke/index.php/6th-annual-forensic-victimology>

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Professor Kabiru Bala-Vice Chancellor- Ahmadu Bello University, Kaduna State, Nigeria

Prof. Kabiru Bala graduated with B.Sc. (Hons) Building in 1985 from the Department of Building, Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria. Prof. Bala was appointed as the Vice-Chancellor, Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria in January, 2020. He obtained the Master of Science in Building Services in 1990, Masters in Business Administration in 1998 and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) in Construction Management in 2001, all from Ahmadu Bello University. He was at the Department of Civil Engineering, Surveying and Building, University of Abertay, Dundee Scotland as a Visiting Scholar in 1994/1995. He rose through the ranks and was appointed Professor of Construction Management in 2007. He has taught and examined several undergraduate and postgraduate courses and has successfully supervised 15 PhDs and over 35 M.Sc. candidates to graduation. He has over 100 publications in national and international academic journals and referred conference proceedings to his credit; with more than 50% published after attaining the rank of Professor. He has attracted several grants from a variety of funding sources, and donations in kind for the University. He has also facilitated many collaborations between ABU and other Universities/organisations. Professor Bala has acquired extensive administrative experience; having served in different capacities at the Departmental, Faculty, University and national levels. He was two-time Head of Department from 2001 to 2006 and from 2010 to 2014; he was the pioneer ICT Coordinator of the University from 2005 to 2006 and Deputy Dean, Faculty of Environmental Design from 2006 to 2008. He served as Director of Academic Planning and Monitoring from 2010 to 2013; Dean, School of Postgraduate Studies from 2015 to 2017; and Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Administration) of the University from 2017 to 2019..In February, 2013, he was appointed as Chairman of the Board of Council of Registered Builders of Nigeria (CORBON), and in October 2013, he was appointed as a Member of the Board of the National Universities Commission, (NUC), both by the President, Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces of the Federal Republic of Nigeria. He is currently the Chairman of the Boards of ABU Microfinance Bank (ABUMFB) LTD, Ahmadu Bello University Consultancy Service (ABUCONS) LTD, Centre for Energy Research and Training (CERT), Division of Agricultural Colleges (DAC), National Animal Production Research Institute (NAPRI), National Agricultural Extension and Research Liaison Services (NAERLS) and the ABU Distance Learning Centre (DLC), among others.

He will be giving a presentation on ‘Institutional Partnerships and Victim Support Services’

Prof. Janice Joseph, Ph.D.

Prof. Janice is a Distinguished Professor of the Criminal Justice Program at Stockton University, New Jersey, U.S.A. She is presently the President of the World Society of Victimology (WSV). She is Editor of the Journal of Ethnicity in Criminal Justice. Her broad research interests include gangs, youth violence, and juvenile delinquency, violence against women, and women and criminal justice.

She has over 70 publications and made over 130 presentations in more than 20 different countries.

Prof. Janice will be joining the 6th Annual Forensic Victimology and Victim Support Services conference to be held at the University of Nairobi from 25th-26th October 2023 virtually. As the President of the World Society of Victimology, she will give some insights on WSV and the takeaways conference participants can benefit from more than 20 different countries.

Prof. Janice will be joining the 6th Annual Forensic Victimology and Victim Support Services conference to be held at the University of Nairobi from 25th-26th October 2023 virtually. As the President of the World Society of Victimology, she will give a talk on ‘WSV insights: what is the Association about, impact and benefits’

Professor Sarah Agnela Simons

Professor Sarah is one of the Vice-Presidents of the World Society of Victimology. She is a Kenyan Forensic Victimologist consistently evidencing commitment to nurturing formulation of home-grown and culturally relevant victim and survivor assistance programs in Africa. This focus on raising a new generation of competent Victimologists, Criminologists and community leaders is a culmination of over forty years of university academic, administrative and research work on four continents. Professional engagements as part of expert teams has included breaking new ground to sow academic seeds in Social Science disciplines relatively new to the Eastern Africa region such as include Forensic Psychology and Victimology, Victimology, Forensic Criminology and Family Medicine. Specific expertise in strengthening capacity of law enforcement, judiciary and civil society actors to combat international and organised crimes, designing victim assistance strategies, translating global security challenges into deliverables at national, regional and international levels has made Sarah an asset to various stakeholders. Prof Sarah's MPhil thesis entitled Analysis of Maritime Piracy in Eastern Africa between 2000 and 2010 and its impact on Seafarers Occupational Risk Perception provided Victim Impact Assessment of piracy on ship crewing profession.

Prof.Sara will be presenting on' 'Generating Evidence through Victimology Research in Africa'

Dr. Steve Ouma (Advocate) , Director for Research and Training at

Dr. Steve Ouma is lawyer, a teacher and author. He is presently the Director for Research and Training at Kenya Judiciary Academy. He graduated with LLB and PhD from the University of Nairobi and LLM from University of the Witwatersrand.

Dr Ouma has profound interest in unbundling the scope and character of Article 1 "Sovereignty of the people", dynamics defining the exercise of delegated sovereignty under Article 1(3), democratic credentials of judicial authority under Article 159 as an agent for reinforcing Rule of Law and national Values and principles of governance under Article 10 as architecture for transitioning from "People of Kenya" under Article 1 to "Kenya People" under Article 11. He is the author of two texts: "A Commentary on the Civil Procedure Act Cap 21" and "A Commentary on the Evidence Act Cap 80" and numerous journal articles. He has trained and led research projects to develop manuals and bench books for use within the Judiciary. Dr. Ouma has researched content, taught and evaluated the following university units: Constitutional Law, Social Foundations of Law, Legal Systems and Methods, Law of Evidence, Law of Civil Procedure, Jurisprudence, Conflict of Laws and Public International Law." He was born in Mombasa, attended St Peters Mumias, St Ignatius Mukumu and Cardinal Otunga, Mosochi schools.

KEY SPEAKERS:

Prof. Mohammed Ibrahim Sule, Director, Distance Learning Centre, Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria, Kaduna State, Nigeria

Ibrahim Mohammed Sule is a Professor of Pharmaceutical Chemistry, and Director, Distance Learning Centre (DLC), Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria, Nigeria.

Prof. Sule holds Bachelor of Pharmacy (B. Pharm), M.Sc. (Pharmaceutical Chemistry) and PhD (Pharmaceutical Chemistry) from Ahmadu Bello University Zaria, Nigeria. Prof. He joined the services of Ahmadu Bello University, as an Assistant Lecturer, Department of Pharmaceutical and Medicinal Chemistry. He rose through the ranks and became a Professor of Pharmaceutical Chemistry in 2011. He held several academic and administrative positions, some of which are: Head, Department of Pharmaceutical and Medicinal Chemistry, Dean, Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Director, Directorate of Academic Planning and Monitoring and now Director, Distance Learning Centre (DLC) from May, 2020 to date.

Prof. Sule is a member of several professional bodies, amongst which are: Pharmaceutical Society of Nigeria (MPSN), Nigeria Association Pharmacist in Academia (MNAPA) and was a member of Pharmacist Council of Nigeria (PCN). In his academic journey, Professor Sule participated in the supervision of (19) M.Sc. thesisisand sixteen (16) Ph.D as a major or minor supervisor dissertation and has published in over sixty local and international journals. He will be giving a presentation on ‘sharing ABU DLC vision for promoting academic pursuit in Victim Studies’

Nina Hanssen is a Norwegian public speaker, author and journalist and an SDG advisor and motivator. She has previously lived and worked in Kenya. She is a researcher, author, award winning Journalist, author and Media Manager in Oslo, Norway.

Hanssen’s master thesis was on press freedom in connection with Kenya’s first multi-party election in 1992. She has a solid experience as journalist in many subject areas. She has been a media manager, with editorial tasks in several newsrooms. She has worked as a journalist in several countries and in different cultures, such as in Norway, Kenya, the Middle East and in England. She has been a local club leader in the Norwegian Union of Journalists, a national union leader for the Labor Movement’s Media Association, for seven years, chair of the Norwegian Confederation of Trade Union’s (LO) association for magazines, as well as the Norwegian Specialized Press

Association’s forum for journalists, and the forum for editors. She has practiced a wide range of journalistic genres, such as news articles, columns, feature, books, as well as audio and video. Nina is a trainer, mentor and motivational speaker. Ms Hanssen has published 8 books and is a member of International Positive Psychology. Association (IPPA) and her interest is positive psychology and flow. She is a motivational speaker in Talerlisten.no and since 2015. She currently works as a reporter in LO Media. Public Speaker/ Future-Ready Innovator/ Author / SDG advisor and motivator .Nina has trained young girls and women on empowerment.

Her topic for presentation will be’

“Why is the Norwegian Prison System based on Humanistic Principles and on Individual Adaptation for the Convicted and inmates?”

DR. GABRIELLA
HIDEG – Senior Lecturer, Faculty of Natural Sciences,
University of Pécs, Hungary

2Dr. Gabriella Hideg obtained her Ph.D. degree summa cum laude in 2018 at the “Education and Society” Doctoral School of Education in the Sociology of Education program.

During her doctoral (Ph.D.) studies, she spent several 4–6-week study visits to Kenya, investigating the country’s education system. She developed a strong professional relationship with a local teacher training college and has been invited to give a course every year as a guest lecturer ever since. She currently conducts research/teaching activities with one of the largest and most prestigious universities in the country, University of Nairobi and Kenyatta University. Her main area of research is the social perception of fair play in sport and elite/competitive sport. Over the past five years, she has published several studies and books on the subject. Among her most significant achievements in recent years has been the successful validation of six international questionnaires in Hungary and Kenya. This has opened up a new field of research on fair play in the field of education, both in public and higher education. She is currently working on the development of a fair play programme.

Her topic for Presentation will be on ‘Fair Play as an Added Value’

Dr. Charles Oloo K'Ochiel (PhD)

Dr. Oloo is a Catholic Priest and a Canon lawyer, with a wide experience in spiritual and family matters on violence and abuse both in the church and family settings. He holds a Master’s degree and a Doctor of Philosophy degree in Canon Law from Angelicum Pontifical University, Rome. He is a trained military officer who worked as the armed forces chaplain in Kenya from 1997/2001. He is a Judicial Vicar in Inter-Diocesan Tribunal of Kisumu where he handles both marriage and clerical cases in the dioceses of Kakamega, Bungoma, Kisii, Homabay and Kisumu Archdiocese. He also deals with matters involving abuse in various Religious Congregations here in Nairobi. Currently, Rev. Dr. K'Ochiel is the Vice Rector and Dean of Students at St. Thomas Aquinas Major Seminary. In this connection, he has participated both in investigations of allegations that involve different crimes as well as given talks to clergy, religious, students and institutions on the offences. He has delivered keynote speeches on “the Role of the Church in Prevention and Countering Terrorism and violent Extremism”; “Counter Violent Extremism” and “Sexual Offence against Minors and Vulnerable adults in the light of Vosestis lux mundi”. He has published widely in the areas of law, spirituality and family life. Rev(Dr.)Ochiel will be presenting on ‘The Church and Victimology’

Prof. Pamela Raburu

I obtained PhD from Lancaster University, UK (2010), MA (2000) and BEd, both from IOE/UCL-London. An Associate Professor in Educational Psychology, and currently the Director Quality Assurance at Jaramogi Oginga Odinga University of Science and Technology (JOOUST) in Kenya. An ACU ambassador to JOOUST and a member of ACU supporting Research Steering Committee representing East Africa region. I am a member of the Kenya Universities Quality Assurance Network

(KuQAN), EAQAN, AAU/AfriQAN. I had previously served as the Dean School of Education (2015-2018), and Chairperson of a department. I worked as a lecturer at Dhofar University in the Sultanate of Oman (2006-2012), and King Faisal University in Saudi Arabia (2000-2005). I am a member of Africa Deans Association, with a passion for supporting gender issues, a member of Gender and Education Association UK, and FAWE Kenya Chapter. An Educational Psychologist with over 20 years teaching experience- supervised and graduated 15 PhD and 40 Master students. I have authored/co-authored 55 articles in refereed journals, reviewed 2 articles and 1 book, published 55 publications in refereed journals, and presented academic papers across the world in United Kingdom, Indonesia, Middle East, Uganda, Tanzania, and Kenya. I am committed to forging partnerships and collaboration in research towards a measurable impact on communities and governments. Prof. Pam will be talking on ‘Challenges and Victim Circumstances of Disabled Persons in Kenya’

6TH ANNUAL FORENSIC VICTIMOLOGY AND VICTIM SUPPORT CONFERENCE KENYA 2023

PROGRAMME DAY ONE – 25th-26th OCTOBER 2023

TIME ROOM A	CONFERENCE DAY ONE 25 TH OCTOBER 2023	DISCUSSANT/ RAPPORTEUR
8:30- 9.00am	OPENING REMARKS
	Speeches Opening Ceremony <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ National Anthems ▪ Kenya ▪ Nigeria ▪ East Africa Community ▪ University of Nairobi 	Moderator Angeline Mulwa/Risper Wepkhulu Rapporteur C.Mutungwa/George Meroka
9.00am-10.30	Opening Remarks Anne Aseey Angeline Mulwa Binta Abdulkarim Rispa Wepukulu
9.00am-10.30	KEYNOTE SPEAKERS
	Alternative Justice System in Kenya :Way forward for Victims' Dr. Steve Ouma(Advocate) and Director for Research and Training at Kenya Judiciary Academy, Kenya
	'Institutional Partnerships and Victim Support Services' Professor Kabiru Bala-Vice Chancellor- Ahmadu Bello University, Kaduna State, Nigeria
	Questions and answers
10.30-11.00	'The Role of Victim Protection Board in Victim Support ecosystem in Kenya' Bildad Keke, Senior State Counsel, Victim Protection Board P.O. BOX 56057- 00200, Nairobi, Kenya.
ROOM A 11.30 am-1.30	CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

	Victimization situations: Environmental Injustices, Historical, indigenous communities and Political Violence/Indigenous knowledge Victims of Human Trafficking
	Exploring Victimology: Understanding The Impact Of Crime On Individuals and Society Sebastian Okello Wang'ombe sokello@kibu.ac.ke Dr. Rispah Wepukhulu rwepukhulu@kibu.ac.ke Mr. Onex Opati oopati@kibu.ac.ke
	LVCT HEALTH- Margaret Wambui-LVCT Heath, Kenya
	Care for the Cancer Patients; Vulnerability and terminal illness. Experience from a caregivers perspective. Jackie Kiseu
	Managing Suicidal Ideation among Depressed Secondary School Students Victims of Insurgency in Zaria Metropolis, Kaduna State, Nigeria: The Role of Metacognitive Therapy Haruna Muhammad Ph.D1 & Sa'adatu Atiku Ph.D. emails:haroonm900@gmail.com and atikub008@gmail.com,Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria, Nigeria
	Language, customs and GBV: How Shona and Ndebele languages and customs perpetuate and reinforce silences in victims of Gender Based Violence (GBV) Chanhuwa M, MSU, Gender Institute, chanhuwam@staff.msu.ac.zw Matsa Winniefridah, winniematsa@gmail.com Masanjala, Everjoy and masanjalae@staff.msu.ac.zw
	Victims of Human Trafficking, Immigrants, Refugees, Internally Displaced Persons Leya Amonde Ouko Ouambo, PhD Candidate, University of Nairobi (leyachad@gmail.com)
	Victimology in the caregiving Industry among Senior Adults Exploring Challenges that make Seniors- Victims and care giving Cases in Kenya Callen Bonari Nyamwage, Kisii University (nyamwangebona@gmail.com)
	Gender discrimination and intolerance: Victims of societal injustices and elusive support structures among women of Afghanistan (Kenyan Students perspectives) Corazon Wasuna(University of Nairobi), Lydia Magutsa(Zimbabwe),Lynn Awuor(Brisbane, Australia),Anne Aseeey (University of Nairobi).

	Prisoners as Humans: The Need for Reform Programmes In Prisons Awilly Caren Awuor& Anne Wairimu Ndiritu, University of Nairobi, Kenya Corresponding author: cawilly@yahoo.com
ROOM B 10.30AM-12.30 DAY 1 EVENTS
	Conference track: Victimology: Theory and Practice, Emerging Issues Trauma and stigmatization in psychological theory and practice, vicarious trauma, Mental Health	Moderator: BintaAbdulkarim/ Matsa Winniefrida Rapporture Angeline Mulwa/Yvonne Okoth
	Displacements and Evictions in Mau Forest in Kenya: Victimization Verses Indigenous Peoples Rights Anne Aseeey(aaseey@unbi.ac.ke Caroline kirwa-PhD Candidate, University of Nairobi Cecilia Gitau-Master of Arts in Peace Education Student (ceciliagitau2@gmail.com)
	Art Therapy and the Mental Healing Process Among Victims Of Domestic Violence In Cameroon Verane Soreilla and Terry Little PhD Candidate, University of Yaounde , Cameroon Associate Professor, Ahamdu Bello University, Nigeria and University of Yaounde , Cameroon,Email: (tlittle_tlittle@yahoo.com)
	Cyber Crime and Victimization in Kenya: An Analysis Counter Measures and Effects on Victims George Meroka,PhD Candiate University of Nairobi(email: george.meroka@uonbi
	The Battle of the mind: Are we losing it? Jim Okoth University of Nairobi Email-Okoth61@gmail.com
	Psychological and Emotional Impact of Cyber Crimes on Victims in Kenya Dr.Catherine Laura Mamuli, Kibabii University Imamuli@kibu.ac.ke,Peter Barasa, ,email:pbarasa@kibu.ac.ke&Omukoba Mulati, Kibabii University, momukoba@kibu.ac.ke
	Meta-Analysis of Victims of Depression disorders amongst Adolescents in Public Universities Kenya Janet Orero Obiero PhD The Technical University of Kenya

Technology and mental health: Reducing vulnerability for victims, Achieving SDG 3.

Caren Awily, Anne W.Ndiritu, Naomi Mwangi and Anne Aseey

2.00-4.00

DAY 1 EVENTS
Plenary session – Key speakers

KEYNOTE SPEECHES

2.00PM-2.30pm	‘Generating Evidence through Victimology Research in Africa’ Prof. Sarah Agnela Simons-Vice-President, World Society of Victimology	Moderator Anne Aseey/ Binta A Rapporteur –Angeline Mulwa
2.30PM-3.00pm	“Why is the Norwegian Prison System based on Humanistic Principles and on Individual Adaptation for the Convicted and inmates?” Ms.Nina Hanssen -Norway
3.00PM-3.30pm	WSV insights: what is the Association about, impact and benefits Prof. Janice is a Distinguished Professor of the Criminal Justice Program at Stockton University, New Jersey, U.S.A. - The President of the World Society of Victimology
	Questions and answers

DAY 2
26TH OCTOBER 2023
PLENARY SESSION – KEY SPEAKERS
Achieving the Sustainable Development Goals(SDGs)

8.00-8.30 Registration

KEY SPEAKERS

8.30-10.30	‘The Church and Victimology’ Dr. Charles Oloo K’Ochiel (PhD)	Moderator Anne Aseey/Joyce Otieno Rapporteur George Meroka
	‘The Role of the Church in Victim Support Services Dr. Namusasi Benard Chinungo. Director/ Principal ,Capacity Training Institute, Kakamega
	Fair Play and It’s Normative Value in the Society Dr. Hideg Gabriella – PECS University, Hungary gabriella.hideg@etk.pte.hu
	Sharing ABU DLC vision for promoting academic pursuit in Victim Studies’

	Dr. Hideg Gabriella – PECS University, Hungary gabriella.hideg@etk.pte.hu
	Sharing ABU DLC vision for promoting academic pursuit in Victim Studies' Prof. Mohammed Ibrahim Sule, Director, Distance Learning Centre, Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria, Kaduna State, Nigeria
	questions and Answers

11.30am- 1.00pm

DAY 2
PARALLEL SESSIONS

Conference Track:

- Social injustices: Victims of violence; Violence against Women, Violence within Family, gender issues
- Victims of Human Trafficking, Immigrants/Refugees/internal displaced persons

ROOM A 11.30am- 1.00pm	Women's Subjectivity In Muthoni Garland's Halfway Between Nairobi And Dundori Dr. Agnes Magu P. K. Magu (agnes.muthoni@uonbi.ac.ke)	Moderator Angeline Mulwa Rapporteur Mary Ojwan'g
	Verbal Abuse And Children's Development: A Case Study of Lyamutundwe Village, Wakiso District-Uganda KUSEMERERWA MARY SUNDAY kusemarys@gmail.com FR. ALOYSIUS BUKENYA, AJ-Supervisor
	Social injustices: Gate keeping, a deep seated pandemic acting against eradication of GBV in institutions of higher learning in Zimbabwe: Victimology and GBV. Matsa Winniefridah, MSU Gender Institute, winniematsa@gmail.com Chanhuwa Mildred, MSU Gender Institute chanhuwam@staff.msu.ac.zw
	The Need for Enhanced Support Services for Victims of Abductions and Violence in Nigeria: A Reflective Discourse E.P. Luka, Joseph Alphonsus Shinga, Dr. Habiba Isah & Mary Adhiambo Ojwang Gombe, Nigeria Email: erlucaser@yahoo.com , Federal College of Education (Technical) Gombe, Nigeria & University of Nairobi, Kenya
	Collaborative Response to Climate Change in Africa for addressing Women Vulnerability to Food Insecurity: A Case of Kenya Dr. Angeline Mulwa, University of Nairobi, Kenya asabina@uonbi.ac.ke/ asmulwa71@gmail.com, +254 724473490

	Prof. Dorothy Ndunge Kyalo Dorothy.ndunge@uonbi.ac.ke
	Assessment of Gender-Based Violence among Women in Bomet County University of Kabianga. Kenya Hellen C. Sang (sanghellen@gmail.com)and Hellen W. Sang
	Land and the Patriarchy System in Kenya: Reduced Women's Rights Sheila Wanjiru Birosho and Anne Aseey MA Student Maseno University, Kenya (email:sbirosho@gmail.com /+254 723 672 564) University of Nairobi, Member World Society of Victimology (aaseey@uonbi.ac.ke)
	The Need for Enhanced Support Services for Victims of Abductions and Violence in Nigeria: A Reflective Discourse E.P. Luka, 2Joseph Alphonsus Shinga, Dr. Habiba Isah &4Mary Adhiambo Ojwang &Department of Educational Foundations Gombe State University, Gombe, Nigeria Email: erlucaser@yahoo.com,Scbb of Education Federal College of Education (Technical) Gombe, Nigeria &Dept. of Economics and Development Studies University of Nairobi
DAY 2 26TH OCTBER 2023
ROOM B 11.30am-1.00pm	Conference Track <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Vulnerability and victimization, Alternative Justices, Indigenous/local knowledge and victim support ▪ Theory and Practice in Victimization ▪ Rights of vulnerable victims and the Criminal Justice System ▪ Trauma and stigmatization in psychological theory and practice, vicarious trauma, Mental Health 	Moderator Dr. Rispah Wepukhulu /Dr.Naomi Mwangi Rapporteur Joan Ochieng Ayotunde
	Decoding Migration In Helon Habila's Travellers: A Quantitative Systemic Functional Linguistic Approach Ayotunde Mamudu, Department of English, University of Jos, Nigeria (ay2nde@gmail.com) Vera Anap Aaron, Department of English, University of Jos, Nigeria,veragwan@gmail.com &Abel Ochika, Federal Polytechnic, Bauchi, oabelelejo@fptb.edu.ng
	General Childhood Victimology: Theory And Practice Dr. Rispah Wepukhulu rwepukhulu@kibu.ac.ke,Sebastian Okello Wang'ombe sokello@kibu.ac.ke &Mr. Onex Opati oopati@kibu.ac.ke ,Kibabii University

	Service Provision and Change Of Behaviour from Enmity to Friendship: The Case of Pokot and Sebei Communities along Kenya-Uganda Border Julius Koringura, Faculty of Education, University of Nairobi Email:julius.chemkeneyi@uonbi.ac.ke
	An Intrinsic case Study of Adolescent in Prostitution as Victim of Early Childhood Rape Janet Orero Obiero PhD, Lecturer, Technical University of Kenya (obierojanet@gmail.com)
	Examining the Role of Big Tech's AI Advertising Algorithms in Facilitating Financial Scams and Enhancing Regulatory and Victim Support Measures Waridah McKena, University of Nairobi (waridahmckena7@gmail.com)
	Understanding the nexus of Human Wildlife Conflict: Coexistence and Justice for All Joan A. Ochieng & Anne A. Aseey PhD Candidate University of Nairobi, Email: joan.achieng@students.uonbi.ac.ke & Email: aaseey@uonbi.ac.k
	Qualitative Perspectives of Prostitutes as Victims. A Case of Kenya Janet Orero Obiero PhD(Email: obierojanet@gmail.com) Technical University of Kenya
	'Challenges and Victim Circumstances of Disabled Persons in Kenya' Prof. Pam Raburu- Quality Assurance Director, JOOUST 'Insights on World Society of Victimology (WSV)'
CLOSING CEREMONY 26TH OCTOBER 2023
2.00-3.30pm	Remarks :Conference Participant Conference conveners <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Dr. Angeline Mulwa 2. Prof. Binta Abdulkarim 3. Dr. Risper Wepukhulu 4. Dr. Anne Aseey Closing GUEST Dr. Anne Nderitu- Associate Dean, Faculty of Education	Moderator: Joyce Otieno Anne Aseey Rapporteur Meroka/Caren Awilly
	Wayward Prof. Sarah Agnela-Vice President, World Society of Victimology Anne Aseey- Convener and member World Society of Victimology

	Departure
--	------------------	--

Note:

1. All papers presented will appear in the Book of Abstracts
2. The Journal of Victimology and Victim Supports Services in Africa (JOVISCA) owned by University of Nairobi will be ready soon as a referred Journal to take up some of the papers for publication
3. All registered participants and paper presenters will be awarded certificate of participation a week after the conference.

Our Strategic Partners

Hatari Security Services

FEMNET

Kenya Probation and after Care Survives

Previous Victimology and Victim support Conference 2018-2021

Photo Gallery

Previous Victimology and Victim support Conference 2018-2021

Conference website: <https://researchweek.uonbi.ac.ke/session/5th-annual-forensic-victimology-and-victim-support-conference-kenya-2022>

Conference website: website: https://researchweek.uonbi.ac.ke/index.php/6th-annual-forensic-victimology-and-victim-support-conference-kenya-2023/